Tell Me Why

Music means a lot to all of us. Everyone enjoys music and we, the Class of 1955, want to have music the theme of our yearbook.

As we look back on our years at NHS, we think of thrill packed football games and we hear the march, Down Down the Field. We think of pep sessions and hear The Bleacher Boogie or the Fight Song. Then as our last year draws to a close, each of us hears the Alma Mater and as its melodic strains touch our ears, we realize what NHS means to us . . . Music waves eternal wands.

Norwich High School is located on West Main Street. Here it is viewed from Guernsey Park.

Dedication

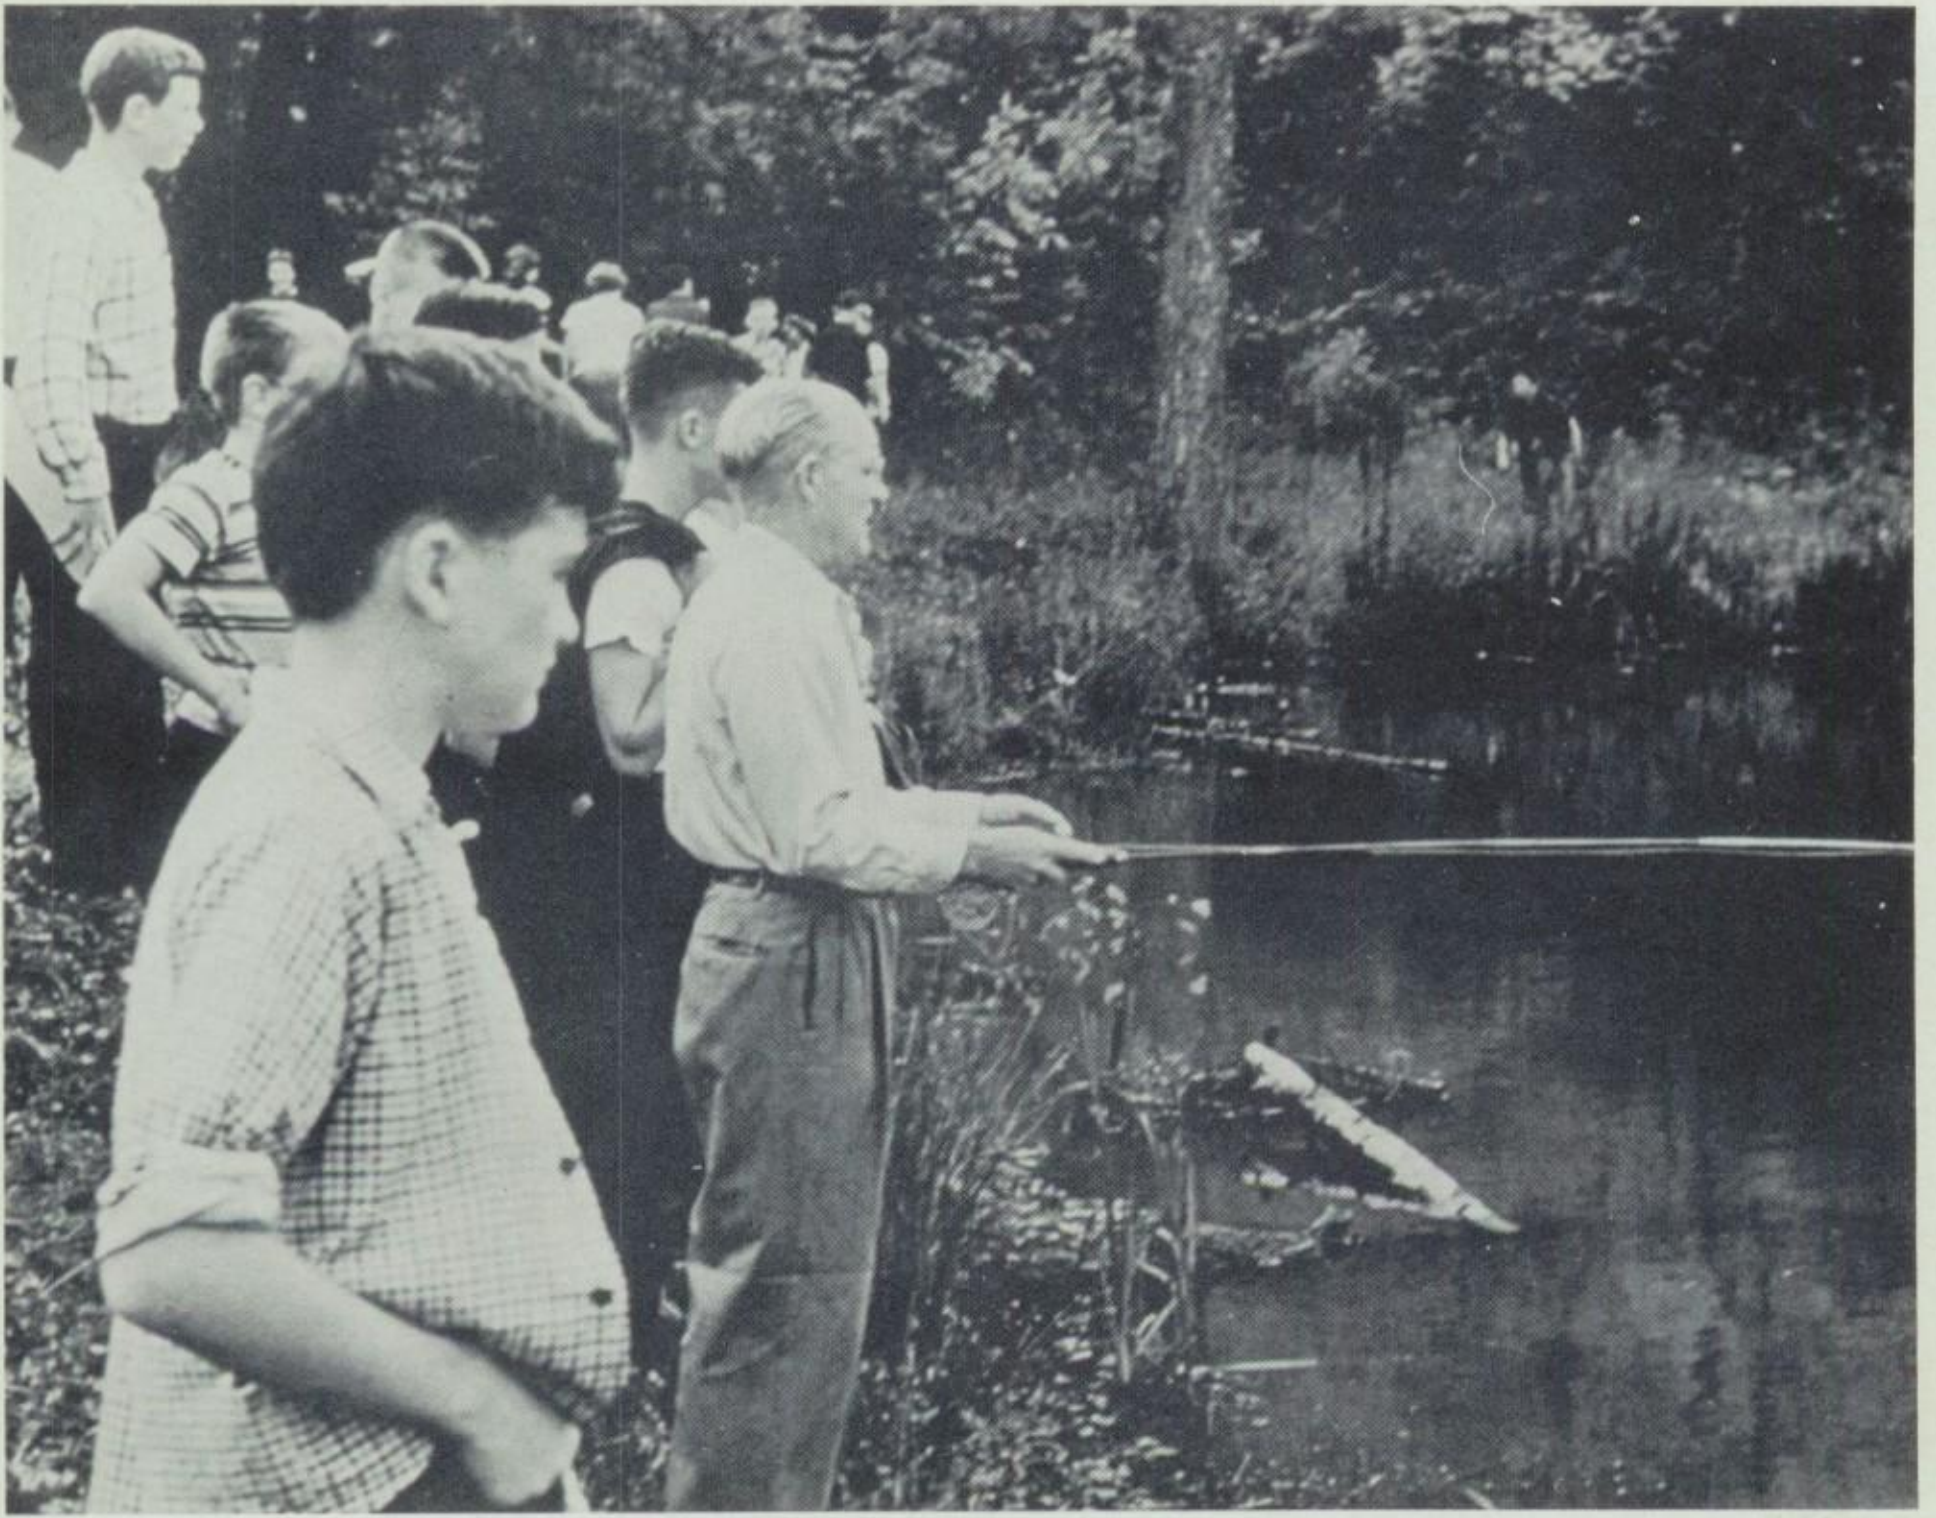

We, the Class of 1955, are proud to dedicate our ARCHIVE to Mr. Lyman O. Anderson in grateful appreciation for all that he has done for us and Norwich High School.

He is Biology and General Science teacher. His room, which is a fascinating place, is usually filled with students who receive aid and encouragement when they come to him for help in their problems. Mr. Anderson is also a conservation adviser. Through his efforts and the efforts of others, Norwich High School has today an excellent conservation park. Hillcrest Park is one of the finest in the state.

A teacher and a friend, Mr. Anderson will long be remembered by his students. Their best wishes will always be with him.

Mr. Anderson with the aid of Gertrude lectures a Biology Class.

Administration, Faculty, and Staff

Thanks for the Memory

Principal R. L. Hogue glances up from some work as we enter his office.

Fare You Well

Mr. Russell L. Hogue assumed the principalship of Norwich High School in 1928 after six years of experience as teacher and administrator in New Jersey and New York State Schools. NHS has grown a great deal under his guidance. The building housing the gym and home economics rooms was constructed, the music department added two members to its staff, the commercial and vocational departments enlarged, and Hillcrest Park was purchased to cite only a few examples.

In March we learned that Mr. Hogue planned to retire after twenty-seven years as Norwich High School Principal. To most of us the announcement seemed unreal and cataclysmic. We couldn't imagine Norwich High School without him! We felt better when we learned that he was not leaving Norwich, but was rather purchasing The Nash and Spencer Store. We would like to wish Mr. Hogue success and happiness in his new undertaking on behalf of ourselves and the more than twenty-eight hundred students who have attended Norwich High School during the years he was principal.

BOARD OF EDUCATION—Mr. J. Brereton, Mr. R. Devine, Dr. L. Cummings, Mr. A. J. Natoli, Clerk; Mr. H. Ellison, Mrs. H. Slater, Mr. C. Higley, Chairman; Mr. G. Brown, Mr. W. Raynor.

Sincerely

A guiding hand so strong, friends firm and true, our teachers to them we owe something we can never repay. They have helped us grow up, to realize responsibilities and how to face them. They have taken us as struggling Freshmen and given us four years of patience and understanding. They are fine people. NHS is fortunate to have such teachers as ours. They are always willing to cooperate.

We also want to thank the cafeteria staff who fed us when we jammed into the cafeteria in need of some food.

Also thanks to the service staff who were wonderful about keeping the school open for evening rehearsals of plays, band practice or club meetings.

School Days

SENIOR OFFICERS—J. Famalaro, Treasurer; H. Winter, President; Miss Stewart, Advisor; R. Masterson, Vice-President; J. Gennosa, Secretary.

Pomp and Circumstance

This year the class was very active. Harry Winter, Joan Gennosa, and Joseph Famolaro were returned to office a third time as President, Secretary and Treasurer respectively. Richard Masterson was named Vice President.

In the first few weeks of school plans were laid for the Senior Frolic, Hernando's Hide Away. Russell "Stella" Beldin, Beth Burr and Angelo Taranto were the hits of the show.

When the Class of 1955 entered Norwich High School as Freshmen advised by Mr. Gibson, they chose Richard Masterson, President; Patsy Manley, Vice President; Margaret O'Connor, Secretary; and Douglas Comstock, Treasurer. Most of the year was spent becoming oriented with high school routine and organizations and conquering geography, Latin I, and elementary algebra.

Tribute To NHS

By Phyllis Carpenter

*Where shall I go? What shall I do?
These were the questions soon answered by you.*

*In your halls I stood a mere child,
And, seeing my innocence, you smiled.*

*As I travelled along life's rocky road,
Often neglecting to follow the code,
I noticed that your smile—bright at the start—*

Grew dim when I stubbornly did not do my part.

*But the years went, oh, much too swiftly by
And as they progress'd, why so did I!
So that when graduation day finally came
I could face life's decisions without any shame.*

*So though I am leaving your lov'd halls
And entering a world of many pitfalls,
I'll always remember your brow crown'd with light
And you, Alma Mater, will not leave my sight.*

SENIOR PLAY TRYOUTS—First Row: G. Zimmerman, K. Maiurano. Second Row: E. Ryan, P. Carpenter, R. Schoales, J. Salisbury . . . "ham up" the script before Senior Play tryouts.

torian; E. Burd. Standing: D. Comstock, B. Jones, G. Sincerbox, C. Casamento. Absent: M. Bengert, R. Monoghan.

During their second year in NHS under the guidance of Mrs. Christman, the class chose Harry Winter to lead them, while Julia Brunton, Joan Gennosa, and Joseph Famolaro were chosen respectively as Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. A magazine sale was held with the purpose of filling the class coffers. Patsy Manley was high salesman. In May the Freshmen and Sophomores competed for the highest percentage working on Work Day. Since the Frosh won, each received a lollypop.

Last year the class again chose Harry Winter as prexy. Beth Burr was named Vice President and Joan Gennosa and Joseph Famolaro repeated as Secretary and Treasurer. Mr. Giltner acted as advisor. The major money-raising project was another magazine sale with top honors going to William Olmstead. The Class of 1955 sponsored Gai Pareé, the Junior Prom, under the chairmanship of James Dunne.

At Christmas candy was presented to the Juniors by "Santa Claus" Chiarino and his helpers. At the beginning of second semester, honor students were announced by Mr. Hogue at an assembly. Harry Winter was Valedictorian and Beth Burr and Richard Masterson shared Salutatory honors with identical averages.

The Production of the Year was The Curious Savage directed by Miss Adams.

Finally the class closed the year by selecting the class poem, "Tribute to NHS," the class motto, "No legacy is so rich as honesty," the class flower, the yellow rose, and the colors, black and gold. Gerard Zimmerman and Robert Monoghan wrote the "Address to the Undergraduates." The "Class Song" was composed by Jean Nazzitto, Jeanette MacEwen, Barbara Tracy and Clara Casamento. Class Day preparations were then completed.

Class Song

Memories

During the summer, ten gals and two guys worked in co-operation with the Athletic Department soliciting ads for the football programs. In the fall they distributed programs to advertisers and sold them at the games. Profits were shared by the class and athletic department.

Quick! Get this typed up. Where is that picture? We need another story. The deadline is tomorrow. Under the advisorship of Miss Doherty, who really worked hard and helped us throughout the production, the seniors struggled to complete the 1955 Archive. Everyone, even the underclassmen co-operated with the Archive Staff. Bradley Paxton took and printed many pictures and others ran errands and did odd jobs to help us.

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1955

We, the most of the most, the best of the best, the Class of 1955, having complete mental faculties, being in perfect physical condition, bequeath the following items to those unfortunates (?) who have to invade the hallowed hall (207) next semester.

Our first bequest: to the school we leave an installation of bars (for the windows) to protect humanity from next year's onslaught.

To the teachers we offer our deepest sympathy, having the ill fortune of having to put up with the underclassmen.

To our dear Miss Stewart: a year's supply of insect repellent to ward off the "leech-like" bugs we know exist in next year's array of seniors.

To the ever capable coaching staff we leave the impossible hope of better or more athletic-like Seniors than "US."

To the "Uncle of Geometry," Mr. Borowicz, we leave a jar of sedatives for his trials and tribulations in next year's 6th bell study hall.

Judy Brunton leaves Miss Stewart another headache: "LOUIE"!

Addie Chiarino wills his Santa Claus suit to any "round-about" junior.

"Gus" Beldin leaves his driver's license to Jim O'Connor or Jerry Bartlett and suggests that they be given another chance for a test.

To Judy McCormick, Eva Ryan leaves a bottle of H_2O_2 and she says, "Finish the job."

"WOLLY" Oops, "Willy" Bresee leaves his muscles to anyone with enough ambition to go up to Hillcrest and throw a few logs around.

Ang and Beth leave a gallon of gas to anyone who needs it—(to get back to school).

Joe Famalaro leaves his draft card to any junior boy (18 or over) wishing a pass to any first-class eating (?) establishments.

"Brownini" Jackson wills one hundred copies of his latest publication, "THAT'S MY LINE" to any interested, male underclassmen. (Autographed too!)

Ron Balcom gladly leaves seat No. 1 to any junior who wants to be first in everything. No kidding!

Nancy Conklin leaves "Peppy" Aloï a foot of height that she has to spare.

Mike Schofield ("Hajji") leaves a pass key to the towel cabinet so the girls can have a good crying jag when he leaves.

THE GIRLS in the Class of '55 will a free bus line from Norwich to Oneonta to make communications easier.

Sir James Boyce leaves his shotgun to Bob Georgia so he can bag a few of the rabbits he shoots at.

Full rights are left to Addie's Heaven and Jimmy's Hideaway if anyone desires these ideal (?) locations.

Seriously, the Class Will Committee, on behalf of the Class of 1955 wishes the best of luck and health to all the underclassmen. With one final comment I close this MASTERPIECE?

One River To Cross

The activities reported from room 206 are every bit as robust this year as they have been in the past. The guidance of president Richard Hathaway and his able-bodied corps of assistants has led the class of '56 through numerous successful enterprises. One of the first was the magazine sale, the proceeds of which helped finance the Junior Prom.

Learning how to operate a voting machine in Social Studies 11 are E. Ayer, K. Hill, H. Bates, C. Franklin, L. Stewart, J. Fuller, J. DiNoto.

Nor is the junior class backward when it comes to social functions. We seniors will probably long remember when we were guests at their Junior Prom. The Senior Banquet, too, has carved a permanent niche in our memories, as has the Junior-Senior picnic.

The Juniors also deserve credit for the talents they have rendered to all school activities. It is difficult to imagine what our football and basketball teams, our band and orchestra, our "Rambler"—indeed, any school activity—would be like without the invaluable co-operation of the Class of '56.

Mr. Giltner, Junior advisor, is serving his first year as vice principal under centralization.

Getting to Know You

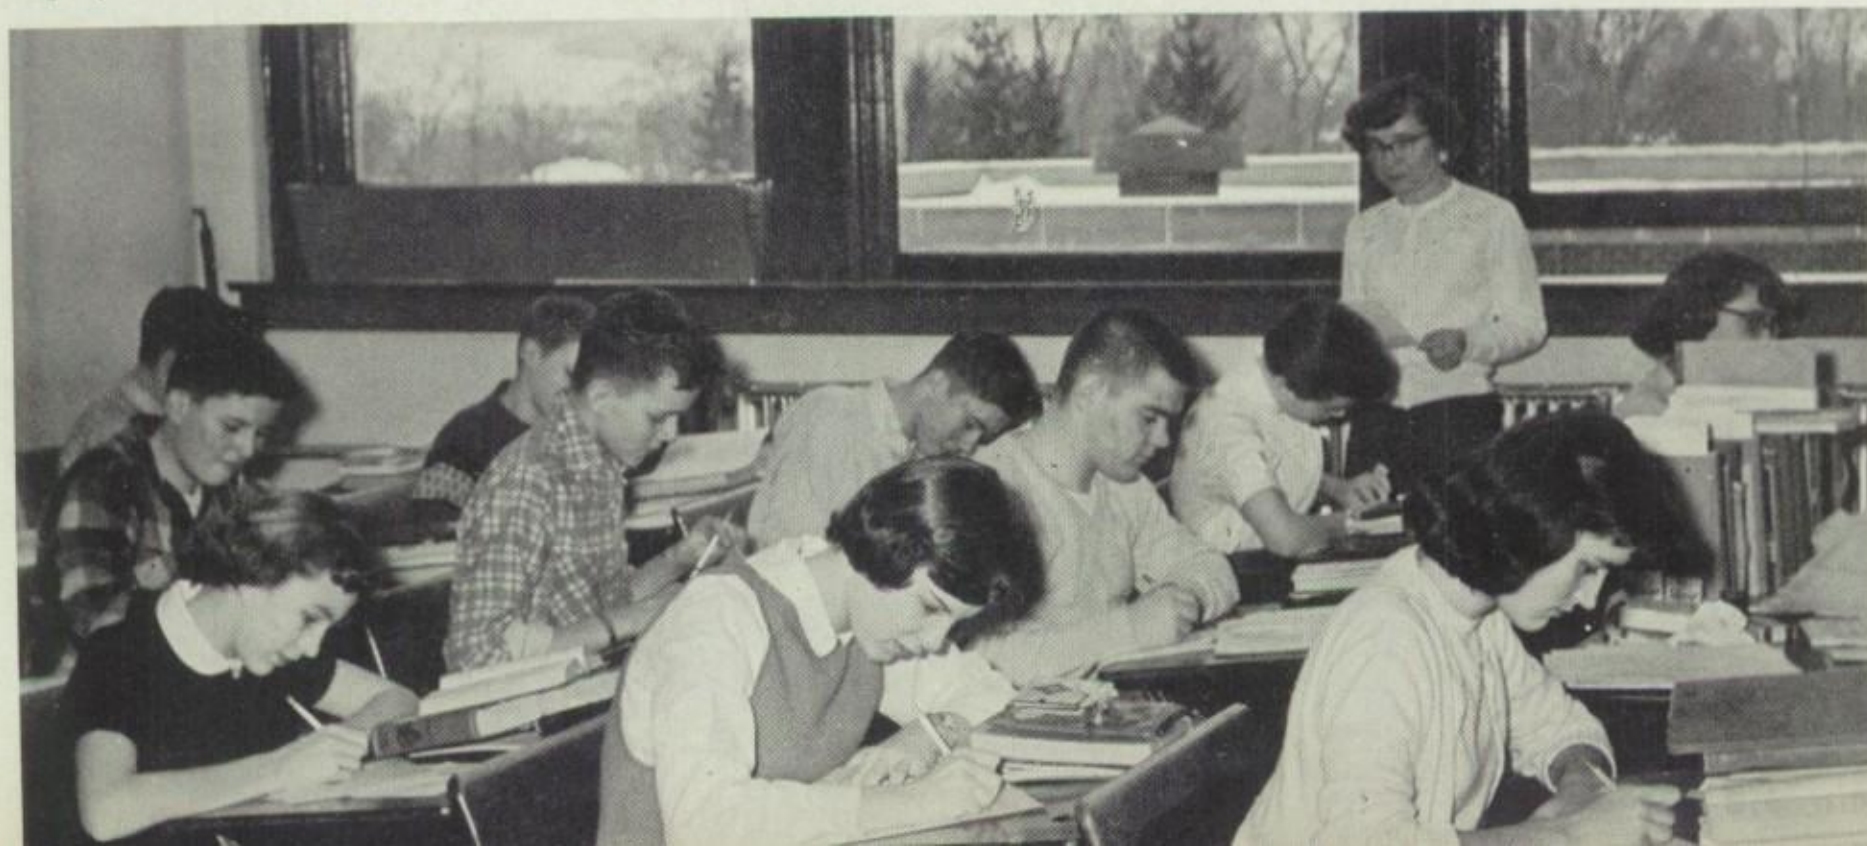

As the Freshmen, Class of 1958, wandered aimlessly among the upperclassmen on that never-to-be-forgotten first day of school, they didn't realize what contributions and potentialities were forthcoming.

After a week or so, when things settled

The High and the Mighty

Smiling majestically, the Homecoming Queen, Beth Burr, and her court, Phyllis Bates and Judy Brunton, are presented to the Norwichites after being elected by the Norwich High School students.

Under the capable leadership of Jim Dunne, the student council had a very successful year. Because of centralization, this year the 7th and 8th grades were represented. One of the Student Council's projects was the Homecoming game. Beth Burr was crowned Homecoming Queen. Judy Brunton and Phyllis Bates were maids of honor.

The polio drive, under the direction of the general chairmen, Dick Masterson and Peg O'Connor, met the quota of $1,700.

At the end of the year the annual Activity Dinner, in which awards are given, proved to be very successful. Next year the council has plans to sponsor a foreign student.

The football team of 1954 was honored at the pep rally and bonfire on Friday evening and again at a pre-game ceremony at Saturday's game with Cortland.

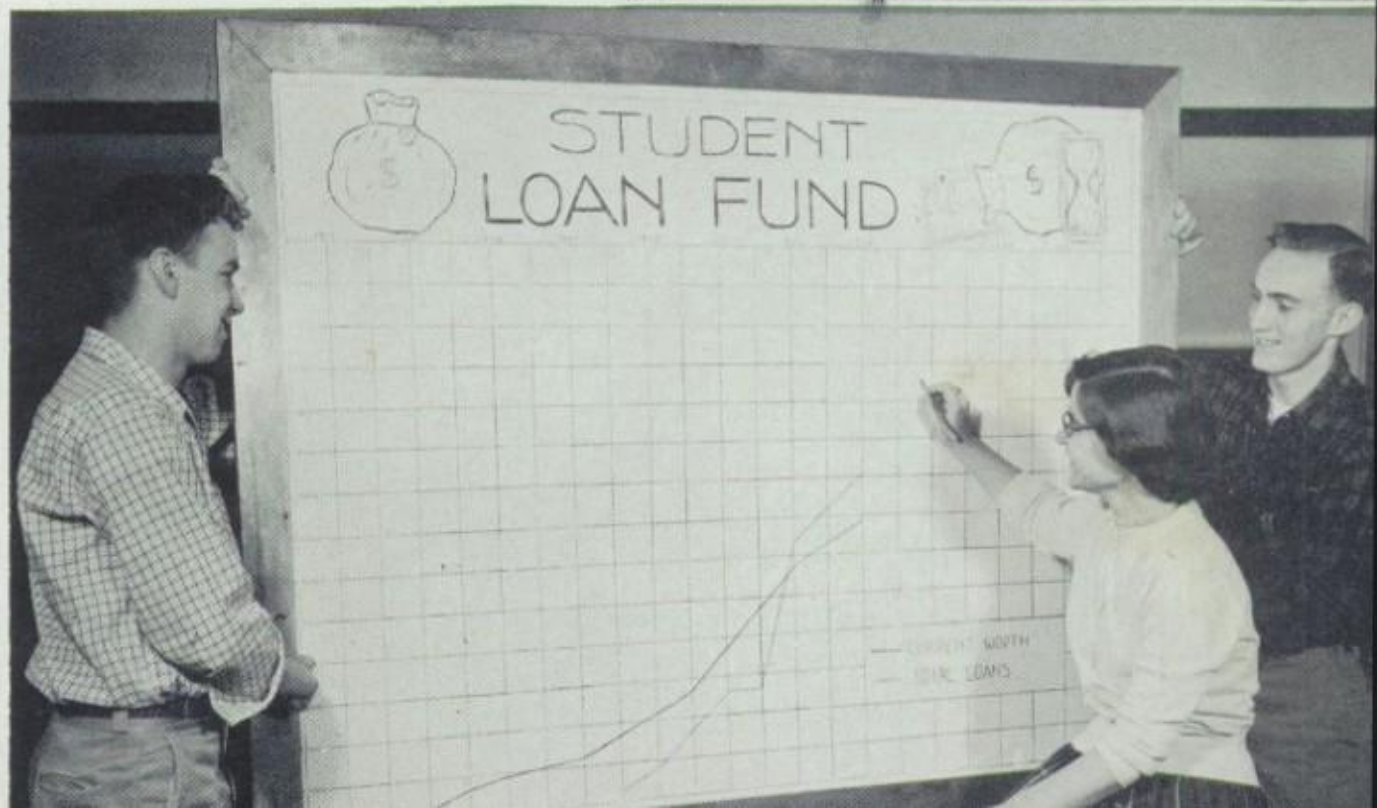

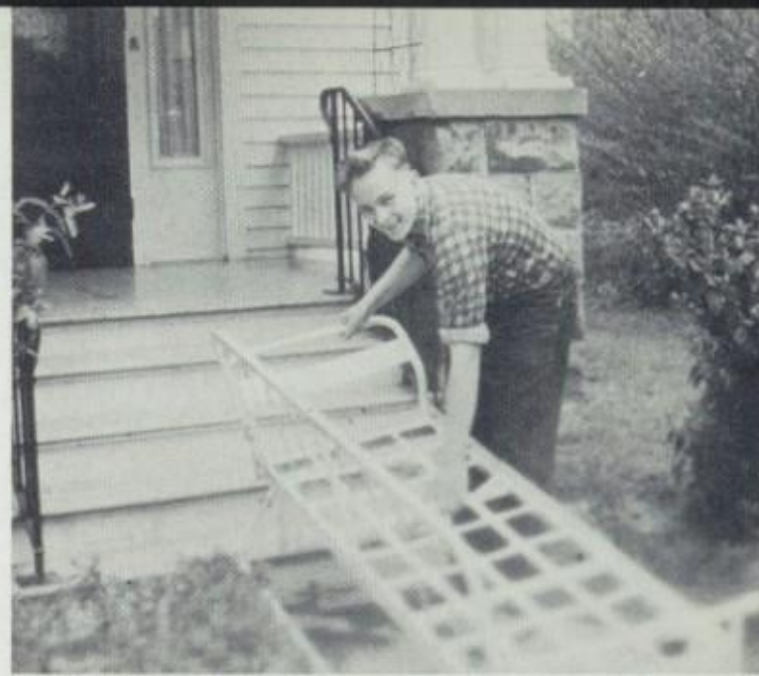

Whistle While You Work

Work Day, an outgrowth of scrap drives during World War II, is held each year during the first week of May. Students voluntarily find jobs, work and contribute their earnings to the Student Loan Fund. During the 1954 Work Day, 56% of the student body worked and turned in a total of $1,266.74.

The Student Loan Fund originated in 1941 by the classes of 1940-41. William Whitney and William Dodgers thought up the idea. At the end of the first year there was $120 in the fund. Thirty-five students have received loans, which have amounted to $12,000. The fund's current worth is $9,984.82.

The loans are secured by notes signed by parents or other responsible people. There is no interest on the loans for 2 years following graduation. This plan is under a trusteeship composed of the Superintendent, Principal of the High School, and the Guidance Director. Money is contributed by classes, organizations, faculty plays, and work day.

Grant Us To Do With Zeal

Chi Alpha, the Greek letters which represent the initials of the words character and application, is the name of the Norwich Chapter of the National Honor Society. Each year nine Juniors and six Seniors are elected by the faculty and students, using character, scholarship, leadership and service as criteria.

New Chi Alphans were tapped at an assembly ceremony conducted by the members of National Honor Society chosen last year. The stage held two golden signs on which the names of the old and new Chi Alphans were hung.

After an informal initiation, during which each new member wore his golden name sign about his neck and performed various menial tasks for the full-fledged members, an induction ceremony and dinner were held for the new members.

This year several Norwich Chi Alphans competed in the National Honor Society Scholarship Contest. A pep session and some money raising activities completed the year's program.

COLOR GUARD—M. Boulant, B. Cosens, J. Sheehan, N. Conklin, K. Taranto. Absent: J. Gennosa.

Column left, march! Under the direction of Joan Gennosa, the snappy colorguard holds the admiration for their marching. They put the finishing touches on the marching routines of the band. They participate with the band at football games, parades, and at competition. In the winter these gals do not rest, they combine their talent with the majorettes and put on colorful twirling exhibitions between half-times at basketball games.

The colorguard also adds to the band's treasury by having sandwich sales, and occasionally sponsoring a dance. At band concerts they help with the ticket sales and ushering. They do an all around good job of adding spirit to the band and to the school.

I Love a Parade!

The shrill of a whistle—the flash of batons—the roar of the crowd assure us of the presence of the majorettes. Led by Drum Majorette, Kay Reihl, and head majorette, Kay Miller, the peppy majorettes really high step it down the street in front of the band. With their tricky steps and baton twirling they add sparkle and glamour to the band. Besides performing at half-time at the football games, they also perform at basketball games. Last year three girls, Kay Reihl, Kay Miller, and Sally Crawley, won first prize in the competition which goes to show that these gals are experts.

The Band Played on

The Norwich High School Band has certainly had a very busy year. In their distinctive purple and white uniforms they began the year with participation in the football games. Their formations at half time proved to be one of the big attractions of the season. By marching through the town after a victory they left no doubt in the minds of the public as to the outcome of the game.

Closing their exceptionally fine season, the concert Band played at two performances, one in February and one in May. Their varied program, including both classical and popular compositions, won the admiration of all observers.

Of course, we must mention the unique publicity posters and fine cooperation extended by WCHN, both of which contributed to the success of the band season.

At the pep sessions they added spirit to the whole proceedings with their renditions of fight songs. Besides this school activity, they participated in the Sherburne Pageant of Bands, sent several students to the All State Sectionals at New Hartford, and the All-State band at Rochester.

Holiday for Strings

Under the leadership of Robert Gardner and advisor Mr. Porcino, the Orchestra started off its year by combining with the choir for the operetta, Harmony Hall. They journeyed to Oneonta for a concert, and on February 5, they had two joint concerts with Oneonta. At an all day affair, in the afternoon they had a program and refreshments were served and there was a dance afterwards.

In the Spring, they again joined the choir in the Spring Concert and in the Spring Festival. They also sponsored a dance.

With a Song in My Heart

The A Cappella Choir started off the season by presenting the operetta Harmony Hall in cooperation with the orchestra and with the aid of the dramatics department. Next the organization sang in the annual Christmas Assembly. In May the Choir presented its annual Spring Concert. This year the group entered the competition festival in grade six music.

The Boys' Glee Club is an active group of singers that meets weekly to prepare numbers for special assemblies, and for the Spring Concert and competition festival. One of the newly organized groups this year is the Boys' Octette which made its debut at the Spring Concert.

Getting together and singing twice weekly, the Girls' Glee Club has done some complicated vocalizing under the direction of Mr. Faucett. The girls have been very active, participating in Harmony Hall, singing in the Spring Concert and entering the competition festival. Many times they have also come to the rescue by acting as ushers at concerts.

The Senior Sextette is a group of Senior girls who have been singing together for several years now. These young ladies performed this year at the Spring Concert and also obtained a rating form at the competition festival.

A Star Is Born

On April twenty-second and twenty-third, the Thespians produced one of the most unique plays ever presented in the Norwich High School Auditorium. Mr. James Couden, new club advisor, directed the drama. The play, The Night of January Sixteenth by Ann Rand, was the trial of the woman, Karen Andre (Jeanette Fuller), for the murder of her ex-employer, Bjorn Faulkner, whom she supposedly pushed from the roof of his penthouse apartment. The most unique feature of the play was that the stage was part of the courtroom, while the rest of the auditorium represented the section of the courtroom where the observers at any trial would sit. The audience was the panel from which the jurors were drawn, and this panel, selected at random, actually decided the verdict in the case. All witnesses in the cast also were seated in the audience. Outstanding performances were turned in by Donna Master-son, who played the victim's wife; Jack Benedict as Judge Heath; Errol Jacobi, District Attorney Flint; and Ralph Jones, Defense Attorney Stevens.

Earlier in the year dramatics helped the Music Departments in the staging of the operetta, Harmony Hall. In addition to this the department helped in staging and lighting assembly programs and with other programs held in the auditorium during the year.

Quite a number of the members of the Dramatics Club earned their hundred Thespian hours; many probationers also became full-fledged club members by working out twenty hours of dramatics work.

The Booster-Uppers

The most outstanding single achievement of this organization is the annual Christmas Formal. This year's dance was probably the nicest in many years, and certainly one of the most well-attended. The music of Freddy Miller's orchestra led to the further enchantment of the atmosphere.

Not quite as breath-taking in splendor, but equally entertaining to the students was the Sadie Hawkins' Dance last November, also an annual event of the Booster-Uppers. The "girl-ask-boy" idea behind the affair always proves novel and refreshing, and the Dogpatch setting deserves special commendation.

Last, but not least, there's the Spring Stomp held in May—a perfect way to usher in the season of youth and joy!

The club has as its primary objective the promotion of school spirit—the "boosting up"

Time Marches On! One of the most tangible proofs of this statement is the changes it brings as it goes along. This year's school paper is an illustration of that principle. Two major changes have occurred.

The entire high school suffered something of a mild shock when they discovered that their beloved Hi Tribune had become The Rambler. Moreover, the journal had an entirely new look, since it was no longer printed on enameled paper, but rather on newsprint.

The whole paper seemed to have taken a change for the better. Students also noticed that there were more pictures and that the circulation was one thousand.

Sitting On Top Of The World

Political Science Club is an organization made up of the Sophomores in Miss Lynch's social studies classes who are interested in political affairs. These students meet regularly and plan programs which will inform the members of vital political problems.

The first guest speaker of the year was Dr. Sanford Gordon from Oneonta State Teachers College. Dr. Gordon spoke on the importance of voting. Another guest speaker spoke during the spring term.

Sandwich sales and a dance were held in order to raise much needed funds for organization expenses.

Miss Lynch is advisor. Wayne Adams acts as president, while Diane Stewart keeps the records.

Miss Lynch, advisor to the Political Science Club, helps the officers arrange interesting programs.

Pennies from Heaven

The Banker's Club has a new advisor in the efficient Miss Wakin. This year the club sponsored a dance called "The Piggy Bank Polka," which featured an orchestra. The Banker's organization has charge of the weekly banking in the homerooms. Their job is to promote thrift among the students and encourage students to save for college, Christmas and rainy days. Regular monthly meetings are scheduled to improve methods and plan for the coming events.

In order to raise funds for the dance they sponsored sandwich, candy, and cookie sales. All Senior members of the organization who have been active in the club for at least three years are presented small pins as a token of their service. This year those who will receive these pins are Peg O'Connor, Joan Gennosa. At the end of the year they held a banquet, in which awards were given.

With a Hey and a Hi and a Ho

The newly organized Pep Council did much to promote school spirit in all phases of school life, including sports. Meeting weekly, the council planned pep sessions, censored pep programs sponsored by other organizations and held a dance.

Results of their work were most evident in the seventh and eighth grades where they held pep programs and taught the students the school cheers and songs. Consequently interest in sports was increased.

We will help! With this slogan on every poster and on the lips of every Red Cross Representative, the Junior Red Cross launched its campaign early in the year. After a very successful drive, it did not rest but began immediately the job of filling Christmas boxes for overseas children. Representatives also collected hangers for the Welfare Department. In addition to this they sponsored a dance to obtain much needed funds.

It Ain't Necessarily So

This year's Bema Debate Club has enjoyed a profitable year. At their first tournament, held in Oswego, the orators emerged with a promising start. They placed second at a convention at Hamilton and again at Norwich. They were very successful at a conference at Ilion, and they placed first by winning nine out of twelve debates. They participated at Aquinas Institute at Rochester and Harry Winter was chosen as the outstanding debater. They also participated at Harpur College in Endicott and they went to the state tournament in April.

Martin Hewitt won a degree of distinction and also came in third in the county finals in the American Oratorical Contest. With Harry Winter as prexy and Mrs. Sullivan as advisor, the club raised funds with a dance and candy sales. To wind up the year they had a party.

Homework

This Club, newly formed this year, is made up of the home makers and hostesses of tomorrow. Among their activities was a cooking party for which each girl invited a guest. Together they prepared a meal. The purpose of the Club is to teach the girls how to have attractive homes, plan parties, write invitations, and make home making more interesting and easy.

“Hablé espanol?” The Spanish Club, making its final appearance since Spanish is being dropped from the curriculum, has had a bang up year. They started out with a Spanish dinner, featuring Spanish food, soft music, and candles. They had two meetings. At the first Miss Wakin spoke on Mexico and gave demonstrations of Mexican dances. At the second Mrs. Gage gave a lively account on Puerto Rico. A dance sponsored with the Political Science Club rounded out a very busy year.

The Future Farmers of America, under the leadership of Jim Brown, have had a busy and prosperous year. After installing new members with the green hand degree, they started off with a magazine sale of the Country Gentleman. They were aspiring salesmen again in the spring by selling seeds. A dance, hay ride, and various conventions completed a very successful year.

The most outstanding activity of Hillcrest Park Committee this year was the First Annual Conservation Day held at the park in October. The program featured demonstrations of various recreational and conservational techniques as well as home room competitions. Demonstrations were given in fly-casting, bait-casting, archery, gun safety, outdoor living and trapping.

A special assembly was held later in the year at which conservation project awards were presented for the 1953-54 competition. Plans for this year's contest were announced and tentative park improvement plans outlined. New projects which are in the planning stage or actually under way include an arboratum of native and imported trees, a rock garden of native flora, new fireplaces, road improvement, a pavilion, the purchase of cooking utensils and the marking of park boundaries.

At the head of our athletic program we find the Boys' and Girls' Athletic Councils.

The Girls' Athletic Council is composed of class representatives who are elected at the beginning of each year. The council has full charge of the yearly student-faculty basketball game. The highlight of the year was the girls' demonstration, which was developed around a woodland theme.

The Boys' Athletic Council is composed of boys, representing all sports, who meet certain membership requirements.

First on the Council's list of duties is the awarding of letters in all sports. Besides acting as the governing body in the boys' sports program, the council raises money by operating a concession stand at all basketball games and selling baseball season tickets. They also care for the trophy case in the gym lobby. When it comes to the organizing of the annual interclass games, the council is on hand again, insuring each team of a coach, manager, and uniforms.

Down, Down the Field

The NHS gridders, after stumbling through a rugged start that dropped their record to one win and three losses, fought their way to a tie for second place in the Iroquois League. Led by Captain Tony Vellake, the Purple and White had squared away their record at four wins and four losses by the end of the season.

After being stunned by a rugged Whitesboro squad 7-19, the Purple Tornado was beaten by the undefeated Vestal Bulldogs 0-13.

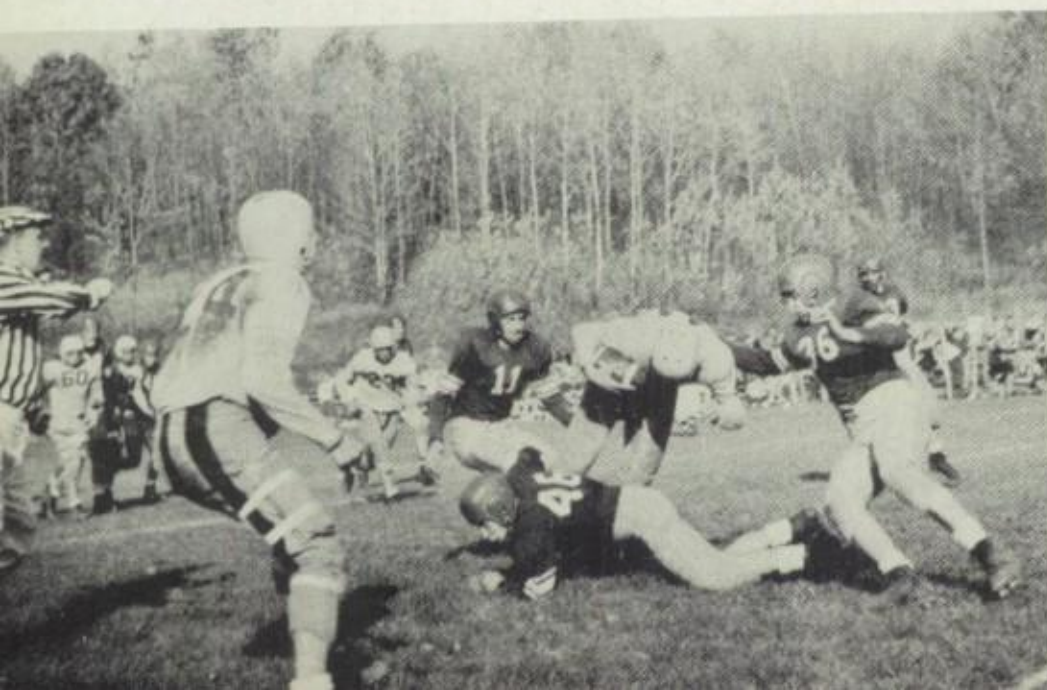

The gridders rolled over winless Little Falls 33-0, but in the Herkimer game they were shocked by a first quarter touchdown pass and were defeated 7-0.

Norwich returned to its winning ways with decisive victories over Ilion 31-0 and Cortland 28-6.

Mohawk invaded Norwich with confidence of an easy victory, but the NHS squad fought with great vigor and a tremendous amount of spirit to hold the undefeated league leaders to a 6-7 victory.

Oneonta fans came to Norwich in droves, but returned home after we had rolled over the team 34-6.

At the annual Football Banquet Butch Magistro was named captain of the 1955 squad. Joe Famolaro received the Most Valuable

Clancy Lowered the Boom

Under the guidance of Coach Elia, the NHS Wrestling Varsity retained its Iroquois League Crown with the outstanding record of ten wins and no losses.

Norwich also won the League Tournament at Ilion with eight finalists and five individual champions from the squad. League Champions were: Don Manley, 130 pound class; Jerry Annesi, 141 pound class; Bob Rice, 157 pound class; Ted Hanson, 168 pound class; and Tony Vellake, unlimited class.

Norwich entered the Section III Tournament at Rome crippled by injuries to three varsity wrestlers. Although leading all teams going into the finals, Norwich failed to win any final matches and consequently placed third. Norwich finalists were Annesi, Kane and Rice.

The team is looking forward to a promising record next year since only four wrestlers, Captain Dave Scully, Bob Rice, Dick Moore, and Tony Vellake, will be lost through graduation.

Norwich, coached by Mr. Frank Giltner, maintained its Iroquois League Championship for the second year with a fine twelve win, two loss season.

Led by Co-Captains Howie Ryan and Tom Swales, came back after being defeated by Oneonta early in the season to defeat the strong Oneonta Nine 4-2, thus winning the Iroquois crown. Besides Oneonta, the only other team Norwich bowed to was Little Falls 1-4. Later in the season the Purple and White defeated Little Falls 1-0. Another thriller of the season was Norwich's defeat of Herkimer 2-1 in the eighth inning.

Tumbling Tumbleweeds

Kips, splits, hand springs, back bends, hand stands—yes—and pyramids come naturally to the members of Tumbling Team. These skills, synchronized to with music were an outstanding part of the Dem this year.

TUMBLING TEAM—First Row: N. Redfield, J. Aloï, P. Carpenter, President; M. Burr, B. Maragno, D. Bovee. Second Row: J. McCormick, B. Santolucito, F. Mason, E. Burd, H. Urlwin, S. Horton. Third Row: N. Conklin, A. Redfield, M. Brunton, E. Ryan.

Modern Dance Club specializes in creative dancing. Music is interpreted through the dance by this group. Their original and colorful routines were one of the main attractions at the Dem.

Crazy over Horses

Betsy and Louie hopping over the horse—Phyl hanging by her toes—Joan scampering up the poles—Barb flipping off the spring board—these are all very familiar sights when you walk into the gym 7th bell on Thursday. The apparatus club is in full swing getting ready for the Dem. This year they will switch from monkeys to squirrels.

Kill the ump! In the gym—on the field—these gals are always on the ball. At intramurals, playdays, and Student-Faculty games these girls can be heard blowing whistles and yelling out names of foulers. Miriam Sheldon and Carol Wightman won official's letters for completing 18 hours of officiating. They held sandwich sales and at meetings they discussed rule changes and problems at games.

OFFICIALS CLUB—Miss Dandrow, Advisor; E. D'Angelo, M. Victor, A. Schofield, J. DiNoto, S. Spencer, L. Marvin, J. Lewis, N. Brown, S. Blackman. Absent: M. Sheldon, Secretary; J. Gennosa, President.

The Varsity Basketball Team played a series of four games this season, finishing with a record of 2-2. The first game of the year was the Student-Faculty Game, which the Faculty won 53-51 in an overtime period. The girls went on to place second in the Iroquois League Tournament. After defeating Oneonta and Herkimer in the preliminary games, Norwich lost to the Championship Ilion sextet in the finals by a score of 52-43.

The Volleyball Varsity played two interscholastic games. The team lost to Ilion, but defeated Oneonta.

The Girls' Varsity Soccer and Hockey Teams were seriously handicapped last fall by the lack of a class playing field. Consequently the teams had to both learn skills and practice after school. The Soccer Team played Ilion and Mohawk, losing both; while the Hockey Team lost to Mohawk and New Berlin.

You'll Never Walk Alone

Alma Mater

With Light thy brow is crowned, with hope thy form is shrouded, Thy face shines forth unclouded, O Alma Mater dear.
Our burdens are made lighter, our inspiration brighter,
Our vows for right are mightier, to thee, O Mother dear.

The chimes of memory sounding, thy praise with faith abounding
Confess our love redounding to thee, O Mother dear,
When years have passed thee rolling, their mysteries unfolding
We promise to be holding thine image, Mother dear.

Words and music by Frank R. Wassung.
